INTRODUCTION

The 2025 Inspire Women event, held on Friday, 21st November 2025 at the Newgrange Hotel in Navan was not just a gala dinner. It was a celebration of strength, culture, and connection. We came together as women, partners, and supporters to celebrate achievements and the incredible impact of our communities.

The purpose of the event was clear: empowerment, connection, celebration, and recognition.

Every part of the evening reflected these values, honouring women who uplift our communities and recognising the dedication of our staff and volunteers who give their time and passion to support others.

We enjoyed a rich programme of inspiration, creativity, and cultural expression. Every performance, speech, and presentation added meaning to the celebration. Leaving us feeling proud, connected, and motivated.

The event was a memorable occasion that celebrated diversity, recognised achievement, and strengthened the bonds within our community.

OPENING & WELCOME

Susan Mkhabela opened the evening with a warm and energetic welcome. She greeted all guests, acknowledged the diverse communities present, and set the tone for a night of celebration, connection, and inspiration. Her words encouraged everyone to enjoy the programme and highlighted the significance of recognising the achievements of women, staff, and volunteers.

GUEST SPEAKERS

The evening featured inspiring speakers who shared their experiences and insights, emphasizing resilience, empowerment, and community support. Nataliia also presented a beautiful painting titled “Colors of the Fading Day”, adding an artistic and reflective touch to the event.

PERFORMANCES & VOICES OF EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Jose Misael Rivas Cortez amazed us with his guitar performance, and Alan Akhmedov thrilled everyone with his drumming. During the Voices of Experience, Jinnicha Saowaphayodsawee and Amani Al Sadeq shared their personal journeys since joining our events. Their stories reminded us of the real impact we’ve had in inspiring and empowering lives, leaving us proud, motivated, and connected.

CULTUR WOMEN'S GROUP – SHOLA YAHYA

We had a beautiful moment with the Cultur Women's Group, led by Shola Yahya, who came on stage with a lively dance. Shola also spoke briefly about the group, sharing how their workshops continue to support and inspire women in our community. She was highly commended for her dedication and the incredible work she has done in guiding and empowering the group.
